

CIA INTERNAL USE ONLY

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 18 June 1964

1. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Received a call from Mr. Samuel Scott, Senate Rules Committee, who requested a name and telephone extension [redacted] [redacted] I gave him [redacted] name and phone extension. (See Journal item of 17 June for details.)

2. (Internal Use Only - JGO) As a follow up to my meeting earlier this week, I met briefly with Congressman Charles Bennett (D., Fla.) after the Director's briefing session with the Armed Services Committee. Mr. Bennett indicated in part that time had not allowed getting to the question of rebuttal of charges against the Agency. He had found this morning's session a most satisfactory one.

3. (Internal Use Only - JGO) In meeting with Mr. Russell Blandford, House Armed Services Committee, after the Director's briefing, Mr. Blandford indicated that the Chairman was very much impressed with the briefing provided by Mr. McCone.

4. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Received a call from Mr. Andrew McCutcheon, Executive Secretary to Representative J. Vaughan Gary (D., Va.) regarding [redacted] a retired Master Sergeant whom the Congressman had referred to the Agency about a week ago. Since we had not been able to utilize [redacted] services, the Congressman would like our advice, if we can give it, whether there is any reason that he should not recommend the individual to the Department of Defense for consideration. I advised Mr. McCutcheon that I did not know that we could have any basis for a recommendation but that I would check the matter and be in touch with him.

5. (Internal Use Only - JGO) In response to a request from [redacted] [redacted] I ascertained from Bill Saltonstall in the office of Senator Leverett Saltonstall that the last address he has for Robert Moore, the author of the article "I Fought in Vietnam", which appears in the 8 June edition of United States News and World Report, is for Mr. Moore's father's business address, which is Sheraton Corporation, 430 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. (See Journal item of 16 June for details.)
